MATTER _____

Justice Robert H. Jackson,
United States Supreme Court,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Justice Jackson:

Hans Bernd Gisevius told me of the most interesting luncheon he had had with you and also outlined briefly to me his project of making a study which would help debunk the myth surrounding the German generals and General Staff.

His project rather interested me as I think it would be useful to have a German present the facts on the subservience of the generals to the Nazis with the exception of a few leaders, most of whom were liquidated after July 20, 1944. Of course, the Nuremberg records contain a vast amount of source material on this subject and I imagine that the German archives in the War Department or CIA would have additional material.

I should be glad to help along on this project and hope to have a talk with some friends in the Pentagon when I am next in Washington.

With kindest regards, I remain

Faithfully yours,

A. W. Dulles
